

Making Your Adult Day Center Work

Join us for a one-day informative seminar for persons new to the business or exploring the possibility of opening an adult day program.

- Learn about the adult day services sector in the state and nation.
- Discover evidence-based business practices for adult day services.
- Examine the business to decide if opening an adult day center is right for you.
- Gather resources to help build your business.
- Gain valuable insight into an important health care sector from an experienced provider, Teresa Johnson Troup, MBA, Executive Director of the North Carolina Adult Day Services Association and former Director of the National Adult Day Services Association.
